

Junior Civil War Historian

Southeast Region
National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

EXPLORE -- LEARN -- PROTECT

COMMEMORATE THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CIVIL WAR AND EARN A SPECIAL PATCH!

One hundred fifty years ago, our nation nearly tore itself apart. Soldiers in blue and gray struggled on battlefields across the country and changed the face of the United States of America. Now you can visit these special places and become a Junior Civil War Historian as our nation remembers what that conflict means to us today.

It's as easy as 1, 2, 3!

Option 1

1. Complete the Junior Ranger programs at three of the participating parks. Or ...

Option 2

2. Complete the Junior Ranger programs at two participating parks and complete one activity from our website (<http://www.nps.gov/stri/forkids/jcwh.htm>).

3. Bring this card with the dates and initials of rangers from the parks where you completed the Junior Ranger programs, and your completed web activity if you chose Option 2, to any participating park to receive your patch and become a Junior Civil War Historian.

Participating Parks

Andersonville National Historic Site

Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park

Chickamauga & Chattanooga National Military Park

Shiloh National Military Park

Stones River National Battlefield

Fort Donelson National Battlefield

Vicksburg National Military Park

Fort Pulaski National Monument

You can find more information about these parks at www.nps.gov.

Fort Sumter National Nonument
(Includes Fort Moultrie)

Junior Civil War Historian Program Completion Record

Ranger Initials

Park

Date
