

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Learn about the National Park Service
through
Free Online Courses

Provided through a partnership between the National Park Service and the Epley Institute at Indiana University

Sign up at
www.parktraining.org

LEARN ABOUT THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

These three introductory courses utilize a variety of interactive tools including videos, links, and practice activities to complement its informational content about the following topics:

The History of the NPS

- The NPS history from its origins to the present day
- The Organic Act and NPS Mission

The Organization of the NPS

- The organizational structure of the NPS, including NPS Regions
- The key elements of the NPS, including current and previous NPS Directors, NPS sites and their designations, and NPS partnerships

The NPS and the Federal Government

- The role of the NPS within the Department of the Interior
- The relationship between the NPS and the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of the federal government

RECEIVE CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

Gain valuable continuing education units (CEUs) to aid your advancement in a variety of professions. Completion of all three courses can result in the granting of 0.3 CEUs from the Indiana University Department of Recreation, Park, and Tourism Studies.

DESIGNED FOR ANYONE WHO HAS AN INTEREST IN THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

These e-courses are an up-to-date, professionally developed educational tool that provide an official look inside the National Park Service by offering consistent, credible information about the Service. The contents of these courses were developed for anyone, both inside or outside of the NPS, who would like a more comprehensive understanding of the NPS.

Sign up at
www.parktraining.org