Sport Fishing Regulations & Permit

Pee Dee NWR Fishing Regulations

The Pee Dee National Wildlife Refuge is one of over 540 National Wildlife Refuges in the United States. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service administers the refuge, and is responsible for conserving, protecting, and enhancing the nation's fish and wildlife populations and their habitats for the continuing benefit of the public.

Sport fishing on the Pee Dee National Wildlife refuge is allowed by permit only. The regulations listed below supplement the general regulations which govern fishing on National Wildlife Refuges, as set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations.

Refuge Specific Regulations

Fishing is allowed on refuge waters, seven days a week from one hour before sunrise until one hour after sunset. No night fishing.

During firearms deer hunts, no fishing or other public activities are allowed within the hunting areas. See public use regulations, or inquire at the refuge office for hunt dates.

Gasoline-powered boat motors may not be used. Boats are subject to all federal and state laws governing their use.

Possession or use of trotlines, set hooks, gigs, jug lines, limb lines, snagging devices, nets, seines, fish traps or other special devices is prohibited.

No littering. Fishing areas will be closed if litter is not picked up.

Taking or attempting to take frogs, turtles and snakes is prohibited.

Swimming is prohibited in refuge waters.

The use or possession of alcoholic beverages is prohibited.

Camping and fires are prohibited.

All other sport fishing regulations are in accordance with state law.

Refuge Fishing Season

Fishing is open year round in Sullivan Pond.

All other ponds and refuge waters are open to fishing from March 15 through October 15 only.

Waterfowl sanctuaries are closed to all public use activities from November 25 through March 14.

Ponds closed for maintenance will be posted.

Signs Protect Visitors and Resources

Millions of people visit national wildlife refuges each year. The impact of human activity, if not regulated, can degrade these wildlands. Signs control recreational activities while protecting natural resources on the refuge. Please respect the following signs.

This sign delineates the refuge boundary. Entry is permitted only for authorized uses (hunting, fishing, sightseeing, etc.) in accordance with refuge regulations.

This area is closed to all entry. No hunting, fishing or sightseeing is permitted. No roads or trails are open to the public (see map).

This area is closed to all hunting. Firearms and archery equipment are strictly prohibited (see map).
