PISCATAWAY PARK

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Established as parkland October 4, 1961, Piscataway Park stretches for 6 miles from Piscataway Creek to Marshall Hall on the Potomac River. Through the use of easements to protect parklands from obtrusive urban expansion, Piscataway Park preserves the Potomac River view as it was during George Washington's day.

SPECIAL INFORMATION

Visitor activities include picnicking, fishing, bird watching, and farm tours. Piscataway Park is open daily during daylight hours. • Piscataway Park Superintendent, National Capital Parks-East, 1900 Anacostia Drive, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20020, (301) 763-4600.
