RAINBOW BRIDGE NATIONAL MONUMENT

ARIZONA

Rainbow Bridge is the world's largest natural bridge. The span has inspired people throughout time—from the neighboring Native American tribes and nations who consider Rainbow Bridge sacred, to the 300,000 people from around the world who visit it each year. While Rainbow Bridge is a separate unit of the National Park Service, it is proximate to and administered by Glen Canyon National Recreation Area. Total acreage of the Monument is 160, all of which is owned by the federal government.

SPECIAL INFORMATION

Rainbow Bridge is accessible by boat across Lake Powell. Trips to the bridge may be made in private, rental, and tour boats. A courtesy dock is available for short-term docking while people make the ½ mile walk to the Monument. By boat, it is approximately 50 miles from Wahweap, Bullfrog, or Halls Crossing to Rainbow Bridge. • Superintendent, Rainbow Bridge National Monument, P.O. Box 1507, Page, AZ 86040, (520) 608-6404.
