

NATIONAL PARKS COLLECTION

SCOTTS BLUFF

SCOTTS BLUFF NATIONAL MONUMENT

NEBRASKA

A prominent natural landmark for emigrants on the Oregon Trail, Scotts Bluff, Mitchell Pass, and the adjacent prairie lands are set aside in a 3,000 acre national monument. This site preserves the memory of the historic Oregon, California, and Mormon Trails. The monument museum contains exhibits about the human and natural history of the area and also holds a unique collection of watercolor paintings by the frontier photographer and artist William Henry Jackson.

SPECIAL INFORMATION

Summit Road allows visitors to drive to the top of Scotts Bluff for a spectacular view of the valley. The 1.6 mile Saddle Rock Trail leads hikers from the visitor center to the summit, and the .5 mile Oregon Trail Pathway leads from the visitor center to the remnants of the Oregon Trail. • Superintendent, Scotts Bluff National Monument, Post Office Box 27, Gering, Nebraska 69341-0027, (308) 436-4340.