

SAGUARO CACTUS FLOWERS

TUCSON

#14-C

2016

National Park Service
CENTENNIAL

SAGUARO NATIONAL PARK

OF CACTUS SPECIES

25

OF PLANT SPECIES

Approximately 1600

AVERAGE RAINFALL

12 Inches

FUN FACTS #14-c

Saguaro flowers open at night and are visited by nectar feeding bats; birds are attracted to the nectar by day. The blossom of the saguaro has been chosen as the State Flower of Arizona.

NPS 100TH BIRTHDAY