

Lehigh Valley Railroad Business Car No. 353

Steamtown
National Historic Site
Scranton, Pennsylvania

Lehigh Valley Railroad Business Car No.353

6

Built:	The Pullman Company Pullman, Illinois 1916
Owners:	Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, New York, New York Dick Horstmann, Syracuse, New York SPO Partners & Co., Mill Valley, California Steamtown National Historic Site, Scranton, Pennsylvania
Type:	Heavyweight 6-axle Pullman Business Car
Cost:	$36,592.55	Staff:	2
Weight:	172,100lbs	Accommodations	3 bedrooms, office & observation
Length:	82'5 ³ / ₈ "	& Amenities	room, dining room with seating
Height:	14'11"		for 6, air conditioning, steam heat,
Width:	11'2"		radio, full kitchen

This luxurious car served at the personal convenience and pleasure of the railroad's chief executive officer. It was the steam era's corporate jet.

Status: On display at Steamtown National Historic Site. The car is used on selected excursions for first class seating.

Source: Subject Files, Library,
Steamtown National Historic Site