Welcome to Grand Canyon

Hello, and welcome to Grand Canyon National Park!

Visiting places like Grand Canyon offers us experiences and exposure to environments completely different from those of our everyday lives. However, having a safe and fulfilling experience when we are out of our element can pose challenges.

At Grand Canyon National Park, The Guide seasonal newspaper is a great way to get started. In it, you will find information about the services and ranger programs available in the park, as well as a map and information about how to use the free shuttle buses.

The park’s visitor centers are a terrific next step. They offer opportunities to talk to park rangers and ask questions. On the South Rim, get an overview of Grand Canyon and how best to see it at Grand Canyon Visitor Center and theater; learn about its geologic history at Yavapai Geology Museum; and explore its extensive human history at Verkamp’s Visitor Center or Tusayan Museum. The North Rim Visitor Center offers easy access to your first canyon view.

Equally important to a great Grand Canyon experience is understanding how to enjoy the park safely. The weather varies greatly with the seasons. Dress in layers and be prepared for hot, cold, sun, rain, and even snow. In addition, keep in mind that the park’s animals are wild. Do not feed wildlife and keep a safe distance from them. Be sure to use your zoom lens when trying to get a close up photo.

I have found living and working at Grand Canyon to be an adventure, a challenge, and an unforgettable experience. It is my sincere hope that these tools will help make your Grand Canyon adventure equally unforgettable.

Thank you,

David V. Uberuaga, Superintendent
General Information

Located entirely in northern Arizona, the park encompasses 277 miles of the Colorado River and adjacent uplands. One of the most spectacular examples of erosion anywhere in the world, Grand Canyon is unmatched in the incomparable vistas it offers to visitors on the rim. Grand Canyon National Park is a World Heritage Site.

EXPERIENCE YOUR AMERICA™

The Park is Open
Grand Canyon Village and Desert View on the South Rim remain open all year. North Rim facilities open in mid-May and close in mid-October. Park entrances remain open 24 hours a day. Although the park never closes, hours for visitor centers and businesses vary throughout the year. For current park projects and closures see http://go.nps.gov/k6rtna

Park Entrance Fees
Fees collected support projects in the park. Admission to the park is $25 per private vehicle; $12 per pedestrian, motorcyclist, and bicyclist. The pass can be used for seven days and includes both rims. Pay fees at park entrance stations or at some businesses outside the park. Every year the National Park Service offers entrance fee free days. For complete fee information see http://go.nps.gov/4i30mc

For information on Annual, Active Military, Senior, and Access passes visit http://go.nps.gov/1unwl7

Pets
Pets must be leashed at all times and may not be taken below the rim, inside buildings, or on shuttle buses. Persons wishing to take service animals below the rim must check in at the Backcountry Information Center. A kennel on the South Rim provides animal boarding. http://go.nps.gov/loxbia

Sustainability
Grand Canyon National Park provides water bottle filling stations and recycling receptacles so park visitors can participate in its sustainability efforts.

For park ranger programs, services, hours of operation, special events, and current information, see Grand Canyon National Park’s seasonal newspaper The Guide. The park publishes an edition for both the North and South rims. It is available in French, German, Spanish, Italian, Japanese, Korean, and Chinese. An Accessibility Guide is also available. Obtain newspapers at entrance stations, visitor centers, or online. http://go.nps.gov/136ojl

This shuttle bus route operates late-May to early-September. A 6.6 mile (10.6 km) Greenway Trail into the park allows entrance for bicyclists and pedestrians.

Note: GPS may be unreliable in the area. Be prepared with a map or atlas.
Weather

Current and Year-Round Weather and Road Conditions  http://go.nps.gov/grca_wr

Beautiful weather shines on the rims, while brutal heat tortures the inner canyon. The high elevation and low humidity cause dramatic changes in temperature from day to night; bring a jacket. The excessive heat in the canyon can be dangerous and even fatal to unprepared hikers. Average rim temperatures range from 40°F (2°C) to 84°F (29°C). Inner canyon temperatures range from 92°F (33°C) to 106°F (41°C).

LIGHTNING DANGER
Common during summer, monsoon storms bring dangerous lightning. When you hear thunder, move away from the canyon rim. Do not stand under trees. Seek shelter inside vehicles, shuttle buses, or buildings; note that shuttle buses only stop at designated bus stops and will not pick you up on the side of the road during a storm. Be aware of possible floods and falling rocks during and after storms.

Come prepared for a variety of conditions during these changeable seasons. May and October are typically dry, but snow on the rims is not unusual. Late April and May feature strong wind on the rims. Seasonable weather in the canyon offers some of the best times for hiking, making permits harder to obtain for overnight camping. Average rim temperatures range from 29°F (-2°C) to 65°F (18°C). Inner canyon temperatures range from 56°F (13°C) to 84°F (29°C).

While the South Rim remains open year-round, the road to the North Rim closes with the first heavy snowfall. Canyon views may be obscured during passing storms, but canyon formations highlighted by snow are unforgettable. Grand Canyon National Park does not refund entrance fees due to weather. The park plows South Rim roads, but temporary closures may occur. Average rim temperatures range from 18°F (-8°C) to 41°F (5°C). Inner canyon temperatures range from 36°F (2°C) to 56°F (13°C).
South Rim

Parking and Shuttle Buses
Grand Canyon’s South Rim attracts many people during peak seasons. Parking near Grand Canyon Visitor Center provides a convenient choice for visitors to utilize the shuttle bus system. Additional parking can be found in lots A–D, located in Market Plaza and Grand Canyon Village.

Consider using the free shuttle bus system. Running on clean-burning fuel, these buses offer an easy way to see many popular points along the South Rim. See The Guide for routes, stops, and information.

Shuttle buses offer bicycle racks, wheelchair ramps, and a “kneel” to reduce step. Please note wheelchairs larger than 30 inches (76 cm) wide by 48 inches (121 cm) deep can not be accommodated on shuttle buses; this includes most motorized scooters.

Viewpoints
Choose from dozens of beautiful and unique overlooks. Enjoy fantastic vistas no matter the viewpoint.

HERMIT ROAD
Travel the 7-mile (11 km) Hermit Road. Stop at nine scenic viewpoints and numerous un-named overlooks. Shuttle buses and bicycles only March 1 to November 30.

DESERT VIEW DRIVE
Drive along 25 miles (40 km) for views of the Colorado River. Climb to the top floor of Desert View Watchtower for a 360-degree view.

COLORADO RIVER VIEWS
Look down on portions of the Colorado River from viewpoints along Hermit Road, Desert View Drive, and from Yavapai and Mather points.

Things to do

2–5 DAY LOWER GORGE RIVER TRIPS
Private river trips can float 52 river miles (84 km) from Diamond Creek to Lake Mead. Permits available starting one year in advance on a first-come, first-served basis. The National Park Service does not assess permit fees for this section of the river, but the Hualapai Tribe charges access fees for crossing their reservation. For information and applications visit: http://go.nps.gov/sxsoub

3–18 DAY COMMERCIAL TRIPS
The following companies offer three- to 19-day river trips through Grand Canyon, traveling 226 river miles (364 km) from Lees Ferry to Diamond Creek. Companies offer a variety of trips in large motorized rafts, oared rafts, paddle rafts, and dories.

12–25 DAY PRIVATE TRIPS
Since demand far exceeds supply, the park dispenses non-commercial permits to travel from Lees Ferry to Diamond Creek via a weighted lottery. Each February, a main lottery assigns the majority of launch dates for the next year. Additional follow-up lotteries occur throughout the remainder of the year to re-assign cancelled trips. http://go.nps.gov/ig4s55
Always carry backup water purification.

Do not swim in the Colorado River! Dangerous currents and cold water temperatures can be deadly.
Day Hiking

Hiking in Grand Canyon creates life changing experiences and lasting memories. Proper planning ensures good hiking memories. See page 14 for hiking tips.

Hiking to the Colorado River and back in one day is dangerous and not recommended. Summer heat occasionally causes fatalities. In winter, cold temperatures and slippery trails can cause accidents and hypothermia.

If you desire an overnight hike see pages 15–16 and contact the Backcountry Information Center for permits.

Prepare a Day Pack With:

WATER
One quart/liter for every two hours. Know your water sources.

FOOD
Bring salty snacks and a full meal. Eat often, even if you are not hungry.

FIRST AID KIT AND SURVIVAL TOOLS
Include medications, blister care, and duct tape.

MAP
Many trails are well marked, but some are not. Know your route.

FLASHLIGHT OR HEADLAMP
You may end up hiking in the dark unexpectedly; cell phones do not provide adequate light.

SUN PROTECTION
Sunscreen, hat, sunglasses, and a sun umbrella.

COMMUNICATION
Whistle or signal mirror; cell phones are not reliable.

SIMPLE SHELTERS
Emergency tarp with reflective side.

WEATHER-APPROPRIATE CLOTHING
Wear layered clothing appropriate for the weather and hiking boots with good soles.

DANGER!

DAY HIKES TO THE RIVER

Hiking to the river and back in one day is never recommended due to extreme weather, long distances, and a near 5,000-foot (1,525 m) elevation change each way.

HEALTH RISKS
Familiarize yourself with the symptoms and treatment for heat-related illnesses, hypothermia, dehydration, and electrolyte imbalances.

OVER EXERTION
People often have overly ambitious plans and fail to pace and take care of themselves. If you feel unwell, you must rest. Remember it takes twice as long to hike up as it does to hike down.

NO SWIMMING
The Colorado River is fast, wide, and cold (46°F / 8°C) year-round. Do not swim in the river—you will perish!

DO NOT THROW ROCKS
Rocks or other objects tossed over the edge or dislodged by taking shortcuts can injure hikers and wildlife below.

---

Hike Smart

PLAN
Keys to a successful hike include knowledge, preparation, and a good plan. Grand Canyon is not the place for spontaneity. Always check weather and trail conditions before you hike.

EAT AND DRINK
Snack every time you drink water or sports drink.

REST
Sit down, prop your legs up, and take a 10-minute break at least once every hour. If you do not feel well, rest until you feel better.

LEAVE NO TRACE
Day hikers can leave quite a mark in the canyon—literally. Write a postcard to your friends instead of writing on walls. Take your trash back out with you, including toilet paper. Do not feed the wildlife, and guard your food from food-habituated animals.

Stay together, follow your plan, and know where and how to seek help.
Do I Need a Permit?
Grand Canyon National Park requires permits for all overnight backcountry camping including:
• hiking
• horseback riding
• cross-country ski trips
• off-river hikes by rivertrip members
• camping at rim sites other than developed campgrounds

Day hiking, day horseback riding, river trips, mule trips, and overnight stays in dormitories or cabins at Phantom Ranch do not need a backcountry permit.

How to Apply
Obtain all overnight backcountry permits through the Backcountry Information Center. The park only accepts fax, mail, or in-person requests; telephone and e-mail requests are not accepted.

Fees
A $10 non-refundable fee will be charged for each permit issued; plus $5 per person per night for below the rim camping and $5 per group per night to camp on the rim.

Backcountry permits do not include park entrance fees and once submitted cannot be refunded. Permits cancelled at least four days in advance will receive a hiker credit (minus a $10 cancellation fee), valid for one year.

Grand Canyon National Park offers frequent hiker memberships for $25. The initial $10 fee will be waived for each permit obtained by the trip leader; membership valid for 12 months from purchase date.
Backpacking

When to Apply
Popular use areas and campsites fill up quickly. Grand Canyon National Park recommends submitting requests on the earliest allowed date. The Backcountry Information Center accepts permit applications no earlier than the first of the month, four months prior to the proposed start of the trip—see chart below.

Since the Backcountry Information Center needs time to process and mail responses, written requests will not be accepted 21 days before the proposed start date. Only in-person requests will be considered within this time frame.

Permit Responses
Grand Canyon National Park responds to all written requests via US mail only. Please allow at least three weeks for processing. The park issues a permit and mails it to the trip leader when space is available and all fee requirements are met. If you have been denied a permit through the mail, you may want to consider day hikes or attempt to obtain a last minute, walk-up permit in person at the Backcountry Information Center.

Last Minute Permits
A limited number of last minute walk-up permits are available at the Backcountry Information Center for Indian Garden, Bright Angel, and Cottonwood campgrounds. The park issues permits in person only, for one or two consecutive nights. Permits cannot be purchased more than one day prior to the start of a hike.

Use Areas
Grand Canyon National Park divides the backcountry into use areas, ranging from several hundred to several thousand acres. Each use area has an overnight capacity based on the size of the area, the number of suitable campsites, the area’s ecological sensitivity, its management zoning, and its history. For a list of use areas and additional information visit http://go.nps.gov/whgm99.

Length of Stay
Camping in the Bright Angel, Indian Garden, Cottonwood, Hermit, Monument, Horseshoe Mesa, and Tapeats use areas is limited to two nights (consecutive or non-consecutive) per campsite or campground per hike. One exception is made to this rule: from November 15 to February 28, up to four nights will be allowed in Bright Angel, Indian Garden, or Cottonwood campgrounds. In use areas other than the seven listed above, trips are limited to a maximum of seven nights per use area; however, overall trip lengths are not limited.

Group Size
Groups are restricted to 11 or fewer people. More permits are available for small groups (one to six people) than for large groups (seven to 11 people). Limiting the size of your group increases the chances of obtaining a permit. Do not obtain multiple permits for the same night for the same campground or use area or all permits will be void.

Volunteer
WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE DURING YOUR STAY? VOLUNTEER AT GRAND CANYON!
You can help Grand Canyon in a variety of ways, from enhancing visitor services to sharing your specialized expertise to help protect and preserve park resources.

Visit www.volunteer.gov to learn about current volunteer opportunities in Grand Canyon National Park.

VEGETATION
Work with the National Park Service’s vegetation program to restore native plant communities and protect the ecological integrity of Grand Canyon National Park. Contact the vegetation program volunteer coordinator at 928-638-7753 for information about potential opportunities and accommodations.

ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE
The Artist-in-Residence program offers professional artists the opportunity to spend three weeks on either rim in provided housing. www.nps.gov/grca

Junior Ranger
Grand Canyon National Park and over 250 national parks offer a free Junior Ranger Program. At Grand Canyon, ages four and older can pick up a Junior Ranger booklet at any National Park Service visitor center. Parents, consider making a great memory and become a Junior Ranger with your child; there is no age limit! Available year-round at Phantom Ranch, Indian Garden, and the South Rim; available on the North Rim in the summer only.

TO PARTICIPATE
Attend a free park ranger program. Complete four activities for your age group. Bring your completed booklet back to any Grand Canyon visitor center to receive an official Junior Ranger certificate and badge.
