National Capital Parks, D.C.-Va.-Md. | 7,977.76 | 7,977.76 | Park system of the Nation's Capital comprises 742 reservations: in D.C., 727; in Va., 6; in Md., 9. When Congress established a permanent National Capital in 1790, the city's Federal Commissioners were given the power "to purchase or accept such quantity of land as the President shall deem proper for the use of the United States." Under this authority the Commissioners purchased Washington's first 17 public reservations and accepted donations of other lands required for the street system of L'Enfant's plan. Today, some 301 park units derive from these lands. Jurisdiction transferred to National Park Service, Aug. 10, 1933. | c/o National Capital Regional Office, NPS, 1100 Ohio Dr. SW., Washington, D.C. 20242. (NC).

AMERICA'S NATURAL RESOURCES

Created in 1849, the Department of the Interior—America's Department of Natural Resources—is concerned with the management, conservation, and development of the Nation's water, wildlife, mineral, forest, and park and recreational resources. It also has major responsibilities for Indian and territorial affairs.

As the Nation's principal conservation agency, the Department works to assure that nonrenewable resources are developed and used wisely, that park and recreational resources are conserved, and that renewable resources make their full contribution to the progress, prosperity, and security of the United States—now and in the future.

THE NATIONAL PARK SYSTEM is dedicated to conserving, for the benefit and enjoyment of all the people, areas of national significance which contain exceptional scenic, scientific, historical, and recreational resources.
