Early Spring Adventures at Mount Rainier

Mid-April to Mid-May

Longmire Area
Kautz Creek:
This wheelchair accessible viewpoint offers a good look at the south face of Mount Rainier. The low elevation here encourages flowers to bloom months before spring arrives in higher areas. The standing dead trees, killed by glacial outburst flood in October 1947, are evidence of geologic forces still active on Mount Rainier. Located 3 miles past the Nisqually Entrance where the road crosses Kautz Creek.

Rampart Ridge:
2.5 hours—4.5 mile loop—1339 feet elevation gain. Reach for the sky as you hike from valley to ridge top. Trail starts across the main road from the National Park Inn, on the west side of the Trail of the Shadows. Check with a ranger for route information if snow has not completely melted.

Carter Falls:
3 hours—5 miles round-trip—900 feet elevation gain via the Wonderland Trail from Longmire. Enjoy the sights and sounds of an old-growth forest as you stroll along the Nisqually and Paradise Rivers to Carter Falls. The trailhead is located across the road from the Museum. Follow the Wonderland trail toward Paradise. For a shorter walk of 2 hours—2.2 miles—500 feet elevation gain, start from the trailhead located 2 miles above Longmire on the last road curve before Cougar Rock Campground.

Ohanapecosh Area
Silver Falls:
1.5 hours—3 mile loop—no elevation gain. Walk under a canopy of towering Douglas-fir trees past hot springs that once supported a health resort to see the Ohanapecosh River plunge through a slot in ancient volcanic rocks. Trail starts at the Ohanapecosh Visitor Center. For a shorter walk: 0.2 mile. Start from Highway 123 south of the Stevens Canyon entrance at the Three Lakes Trailhead.

Caution
Parents: Keep children with you. Stay on constructed trails. Rocks and moss on stream banks are slippery. A slip into the cold and swift river can be fatal.

Carbon River
Due to extensive storm damage to the road, this area is closed until further notice.

Late Spring Adventures at Mount Rainier

Mid-May through June

Nisqually to Paradise Road
Comet Falls:
3 hours—3.8 miles round-trip—900 feet elevation gain. Plummets 320 feet, Comet Falls is one of the park’s most spectacular waterfalls. Look for pikas and marbled murrelets along the trail as well as trillium and early avalanche lilies. Trailhead is located 4 miles above Longmire.

Caution:
Check with a ranger for current trail conditions before starting this hike as the trail can be treacherous before the snow melts completely.

Christine Falls:
For the best view of these falls, which are located 4.25 miles above Longmire, park on the east side of the creek and walk the short trail to the viewpoint below the bridge.

Ricksecker Point:
This viewpoint usually opens in late May and is located 6.5 miles above Longmire where a short, one-way loop road veers away from the main road at the top of a long hill. In addition to its panoramic vistas, Ricksecker Point is one of the best locations in the park for viewing sunsets, alpenglow, stars and the full moon (June 1).

Canyon Rim:
The viewpoint is located 7.5 miles above Longmire at the photo sign. By late spring the rocky outcrop near this overlook of Mount Rainier is dotted with cream-colored heads of beargrass and brightly colored Indian paintbrush, penstemon and columbine.

Narada Falls:
A 10-minute walk down a steep but short trail takes hikers to the base of 168-foot Narada Falls. As if by magic, rainbows often color spray from the falls.

Caution:
This trail is slippery. The trail is always wet as spray from the falls is blown onto the trail.

Carbon River Area
Due to extensive storm damage to the road, this area is closed until further notice.

Stevens Canyon Road
Opens May 25. The lower elevations and south-facing exposures of Stevens Canyon between Paradise and Ohanapecosh boast some of the earliest blooming subalpine flowers. Look for flowers at Reflection Lakes, near Sunbeam and Stevens Creeks, along the trail to Bench Lake and at Box Canyon.

Bench Lake:
1 hour—1.5 miles round-trip—350 feet elevation gain. Avalanche lilies and mariposa lilies are abundant here during late spring. The trailhead can be found 1 mile east of Louise Lake.

Box Canyon:
20 minutes—0.25 mile loop trail. This unique area is an excellent location to view stonecrop, phlox, saxifrage and other early flowers; look at glacially polished granite; and see the Muddy Fork of the Cowlitz River as it flows through a slot canyon nearly 200 feet below the trail bridges.

Caution:
Stay on the trail. Rocks can be slippery.

Eastside Trail:
From the Grove of the Patriarchs, exploring northward toward Deer Creek: 6 hours—13 miles round-trip. Even when the trail veers away from the Ohanapecosh River its soothing melody can always be heard providing background music during forest hikes. Grove of the Patriarchs trailhead is located 0.25 mile west of the Stevens Canyon Entrance. For a one-way hike of 4 hours—9 miles—1500 feet elevation loss: start at Deer Creek and hike to Ohanapecosh. Trailhead is located 5 miles south of Cayuse Pass on Highway 123.

Sunrise Area
Sunrise, situated at 6,400 feet in the northeastern part of the park, is a place of breathtaking vistas and the intriguing beauty of fragile subalpine vegetation. The road to Sunrise opens June 29, weather permitting.

Camping & Climbing Permits

Planning an overnight backpacking trip or summit climb? Stop by a Hiker Information Center or any ranger station for your permit. Rangers will assist with trip planning and issue wilderness permits. The main reasons for permits are to control the number of people in one place at one time and limit the impact from litter, human waste and trampling of the ground.

Camping at all trailside camps as well as Camp Muir and Schurman is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Anyone intending to go above Camp Muir or Schurman is available on a climbing permit in lieu of a wilderness permit. There is a $15/person/night or $25/person/year "user fee" due when climbers register for their permit (also available at the Jackson Memorial Visitor Center at Paradise). The Longmire Hiker Information Center, located in the log and stone building beside the flagpole, opens June 14. Through June 13, permits are issued at the Longmire Museum. The White River Hiker Information Center offering similar services is located at the White River Entrance Station. Opens May 25.

The Carbon River Ranger Station is closed due to extensive road damage.

For additional information write: Backcountry Desk, Mount Rainier National Park, Tahoma Woods, Star Route, Ashford, WA 98304, or call (360) 569-2211, ext. 3304, through June 13. Then use ext. 3317.

Hikers, Watch Your Step!!!

- Stop Before You Look! Mountain scenery is enticing and very distracting for hikers. Park reports reveal that foot and ankle injuries are common among Mount Rainier visitors. Wear shoes that give you ankle support. Then, "Stop Before You Look" at that vista, wildflower, animal or other feature of interest.
- Park trails are steep and full of rocks and other hazards. Slips and falls from small rocks can quickly mar a vacation. Wear protective shoes.
- The waterways of Mount Rainier are home for micro-organisms like Giardia that can make you very sick. Please drink water only from treated, piped water systems; in the backcountry, boil your water or use an adequate filtration system. Contrary to historic claims, Longmire Mineral and Ohanapecoh hot spring waters are NOT safe to drink.
- Remember dogs and other pets, bicycles and motor vehicles are not allowed on park trails.
- Climbers should beware of spring avalanches and sudden storms. Remember that mountain climbing is a technical sport requiring skill and proper equipment.
- Do not attempt climbs on snow or rock or "scrambling" up steep slopes that are beyond your ability or experience. Many serious accidents have occurred on snowfields and scree slopes.
- Stay back from streams and river banks and avoid "rock hopping." Rocks near the water's edge can be dangerously slippery and have caused fatal accidents.
- Never swim or wade in streams above waterfalls or in cascade areas.
- Stop by a Hiker Information Center or any ranger station for your permit. Ranger will assist with trip planning and issue wilderness permits. The main reasons for permits are to control the number of people in one place at one time and limit the impact from litter, human waste and trampling of the ground.

Experience Rainier — Take a Hike...

Self-guiding Trails

Longmire: Trail of the Shadows
- 30 minutes—2 mile. Experience the natural environment and see the former site of Longmire Medical Springs operation on this walk around Longmire Meadow.

Longmire: Historic District Walking Tour
- 1 hour—1.25 miles. Witness firsthand some of the park's most architecturally significant structures. Tour maps available at Longmire Museum.

Ohanapecoh: Grove of the Patriarchs
- 1.5 hours—2 miles. Walk among 1,000 year old giant trees of the old-growth forest. See these ancient trees on an island in the Ohanapecoh River.

Ohanapecoh: Life Systems
- 30 minutes—5 mile. Explore the forest and hot springs on this walk starting at the visitor center.

Carbon River: Carbon River Rain Forest
- 20 minutes—3 mile. Explore the only true inland rain forest at Mount Rainier.

Sunrise: Sourdough Ridge
- 1 hour—1.5 mile. A moderate walk through flower fields to a panoramic viewpoint of four volcanic peaks: Mount Baker, Glacier Peak, Mount Adams and Mount Rainier. Usually not open until late June or early July.

Paradise: Nisqually Vista
- 1 hour—1.2 miles. Excellent views of Mount Rainier and the Nisqually Glacier may be enjoyed on this walk through high country meadows. Trail usually covered with snow until late June or early July.

Westside Road

Starting in late June, you may drive 3 miles up the road to the parking area at Dry Creek. From there, travel further into the scenic west side of the park by hiking or bicycling. Bicycles must remain on the road. Hikers may explore the many miles of trail branching off the old roadway into the wilderness. Be sure to obtain a permit if planning to stay overnight.

Wonderland Trail

The 93-mile Wonderland Trail completely encircles Mount Rainier, passing through all the major life zones in the park, from lowland forests through subalpine meadows to views of glaciers. Hikers can find both company and solitude along the way. As the summit of Mount Rainier is a climb, the Wonderland Trail is to a hiker — the experience of a lifetime. You should allow 10 days to 2 weeks to enjoy the trail. Camping along the trail is allowed only at designated campsites, by permit only. For more detailed information to plan a trip on the Wonderland Trail, inquire at the Longmire Hiker Information Center or call (360) 569-2211 ext. 3314 through June 13, then ext. 3317.
The Mount Rainier, North Cascades & Olympic Fund was created to restore, enhance and preserve Washington's National Parks. The Fund is a private, independent, not-for-profit organization which works with individuals like you - as well as businesses, foundations and allied organizations - to secure financial as well as volunteer support for specific projects to improve the parks.

Within the Fund's first year, it had funded 8 projects. At Mount Rainier these projects included revegetation of a portion of Paradise Meadows; Emergency Road Assistance program; and development of an interactive computer game about minimal impact hiking in wilderness areas. By October 1995, the Fund had generated $64,000 for park projects.

Several projects now need your help:

- To end poaching of vegetation and animals.
- To educate children about ecosystem preservation.
- To restore Paradise Meadows.

For detailed information about how you can help, contact: Kim M. Evans, Executive Director, The Mount Rainier & Olympic Fund, 1221 Second Ave., Suite 350, Seattle, WA, 98101, or call (206) 621-6565.

If you would like to make a contribution to assure that your national parks will continue to be enjoyed by future generations, then consider becoming a VIP for the National Park Service.

To apply for volunteer service at Mount Rainier National Park, or to receive more information on the VIP program, contact a park ranger at any visitor center or ranger station; or write: Clay & Dixie Gatchel, Lead VIP Coordinators, P.O. Box 1344, Renton, WA, 98057-1344.

Director, The Mount Rainier & Olympic Fund, 1221 Second Ave., Suite 350, Seattle, WA, 98101, or call (206) 621-6565. Look for donation boxes and envelopes at all park visitor centers and at the National Park Inn.
