approval. From simple seat hewn from a log to complicated fabricated bench with back is a colorful vocabulary of seating furniture. The same primitive note that pervades the benches is to be found in the picnic tables shown within this section, and both in turn relate well to the characteristic shelters in Iowa parks. Typical Iowa shelters are shown elsewhere herein.