Perched on the rim of this spectacular canyon, this structure forms liaison with its setting by means of native stone ruggedly laid, flat roof, skillfully buttressed corners. Before a lecture group at the observation point the majestic canyon—subject of the talks—spreads uninterruptedly.