HABS No. CO-79-B

Location: Trail Ridge Road
Rocky Mountain National Park
Vicinity of Grand Lake, Grand County, Colorado

Significance: This cabin contributes to the Pioneer Settlement and Resort Industry themes. Twin #1, one of the earliest cabins, was constructed in 1921. In 1945, a second cabin was attached, but with no internal connection.

Description: A. General Information

Architectural Merit and Interest: The Rose Cabin was constructed in 1945 and attached, but with no internal connection, to an earlier cabin named Twin #1. Twin #1 was constructed in 1921. Both have log veneer which alternates horizontal and vertical.

Condition of Fabric: Fair.

Summary Description: Twin #1, built in 1921, is one of the earliest guest cabins at the Holzwarth Ranch. It was a rectangular building which had a second cabin added to it in 1945. With the addition of Rose Cabin it became a three room H-shaped building. The three rooms are historically furnished and open to Rocky Mountain National Park visitors.

B. Detailed Description of Exterior

Foundation: The foundation is low to medium, 0'-0" to 3'-9", and is log piers on stone.

Wall Construction: The walls are undressed quarter log veneer with boards alternating horizontal, vertical, and horizontal again.

Structural Systems: Log.

Porches, Stoops, Etc.: One porch, on the front facade, is a wood platform porch with a gable end hood and log column supports. The other porch is on the east elevation and is a three-step wood platform porch with log, and 2" x 4" railing.

Openings, Doorways, and Windows: There are three single brown or yellow, wood paneled doors. Two are on the front facade and one is on the east side. Each also has a wood screen door.

Roof - Shape and Covering: The roof has intersecting gables, and is covered with wood shingles which have 2" x 4" rafter ends and 1" x 4" capping.

C. Detailed Description of Interior

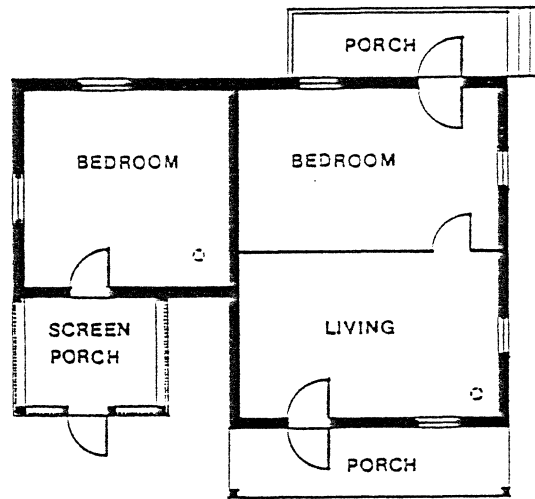

Floor Plans: The three rooms have historic furnishings and are open to park visitors. Twin #1 is 19'-6" by 15'-6" and Rose is 17'-0" by 13'-0".

Stairways: Not applicable.

Flooring: The cabins have tongue and groove wood flooring.

Wall and Ceiling Finishes: The perimeter walls are log; the partition walls are plywood; and the ceiling is exposed log frame.

D. Site and Surroundings: The site is open with native pines, aspens, grasses, and soils, and the cabin fronts are to the west.
