

Abraham Lincoln: The Man

By Augustus Saint-Gaudens
(1848-1907)

Chicago, Bronze, 12 ft. high

Saint-Gaudens shown posing with the finished plaster cast of the statue. One of the first public monuments to Lincoln, it was unveiled in Chicago, in 1887. Lincoln is rising from the chair of state about to give a speech. Saint-Gaudens did two public monuments to Lincoln, as well as four other major Civil War figures.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/saga

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE