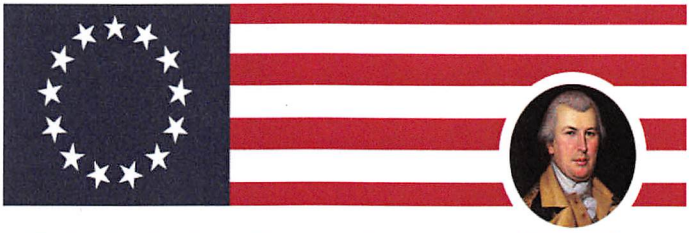
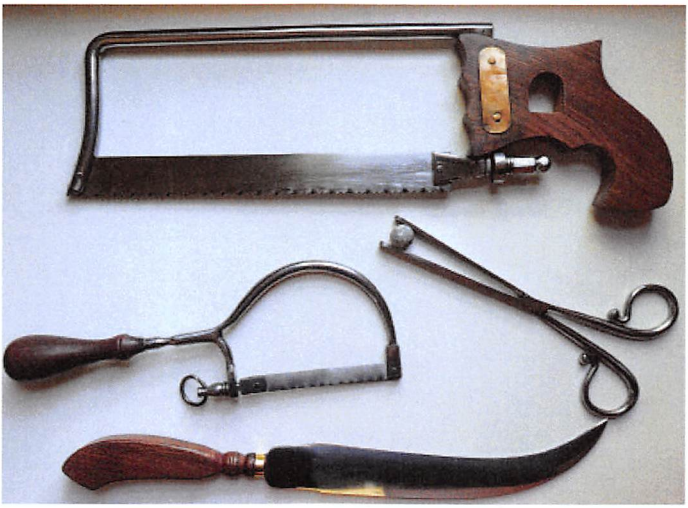
The American Hospital at Camden



Major General
Nathanael Greene

"Our hospitals have been in the greatest distress ... and if they fail us our situation will be truly deplorable... if you could but behold the unfortunate sufferers who have bled in their Country's cause suffering for want of hospital stores it would melt your heart with pity."
-Major General Nathanael Greene, Nov. 14, 1781



Kershaw-Cornwallis House available for guided tours at:

10:30am

12:30pm

2:00pm

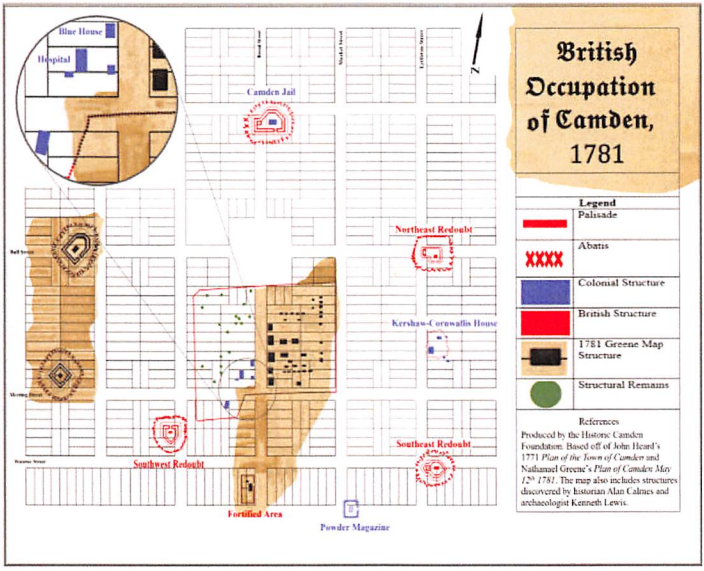
HISTORIC CAMDEN
Foundation

South Carolina

The British Hospital at Camden

Lt. General Charles Earl Cornwallis

"Our sickness is great and truly alarming. The officers are particularly affected. Doctor Hayes and almost all the hospital surgeons are laid up."
- Lt. Gen. Charles, Earl Cornwallis, Aug. 23, 1780



CAMDEN
CLASSICALLY CAROLINA

Kershaw COUNTY SOUTH CAROLINA