EXPLORING THE BACK TRAILS OF THE BLACKSTONE VALLEY

Autumn 1999

Saturday Ranger Programs

All programs meet at 1:00pm and end at 3:00pm

October 16 and November 6

Cranberries and Cedar Trees:

Join an NPS Ranger from the Blackstone River Valley NHC for an enjoyable and enlightening walk to the cranberry bogs, beaver lodges and cedar swamps in the Douglas State Forest. Meet at at the Nature Center Pavilion at the Douglas State Forest. Please wear sturdy walking shoes. For more information call (401) 762-0250.

November 20 and December 11

Exploring the Autumn Forest at Purgatory Chasm

Join a National Park Ranger and explore a world of nature in autumn. Activities will include discovering rare trees, recreating a glacier, and finding water falls. Meet at the Purgatory Chasm Visitor Center in Sutton, MA. For more information call (401) 762-0250.

December 4

Winter Nature Walk at Lincoln Woods

Join a National Park Ranger and explore a world of nature in winter. Activities will include discovering historic ruins, and recreating a glacier. Meet at Lincoln Woods, Great Road entrance. For more information call (401) 762-0250.

BLACKSTONE RIVER VALLEY

National Heritage Corridor Commission