The 116,000-acre area situated along the banks of Cane River Lake in northwestern Louisiana provides a unique glimpse into the past and includes:

- Historic sites
- Colonial forts
- Creole plantations
- Churches and cemeteries
- National historical park and local parks
- Largely rural, agricultural landscape
- Special events held throughout the year
- National Historic Landmark District in downtown Natchitoches, the oldest permanent settlement in the Louisiana Purchase

Experience the stories and traditions of this region as you travel the Cane River National Heritage Trail, a Louisiana Scenic Byway. Whether your interest is in historic plantations, military history, Creole culture and cuisine, or the scenic beauty of the area's lakes, rivers and forests, the Cane River region will captivate you.

Cane River National

Heritage Area, Inc., is a not-for-profit organization that fosters the protection, awareness, and development of traditional lifestyles; the natural and built environment; and a healthy economy compatible with the historic character of the region.
