

American Latino Heritage

JUAN PONCE DE LEÓN

JUAN PONCE DE LEÓN

As the first European to set foot in Florida, Ponce de León came to the Americas with Christopher Columbus on his second expedition in 1493. However, instead of returning he remained in the Dominican Republic. He settled many Caribbean islands for Spain. Dry Tortugas National Park is located 70 miles west of Key West, FL.