BOSTON NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK

MASSACHUSETTS

The 2.5-mile Freedom Trail connects 16 historic sites, seven of which are within Boston National Historical Park. Among the park's offerings are a visitors center, Faneuil Hall, Charlestown Navy Yard (berth of the U.S.S. Constitution), Commandant's House and the World War II destroyer U.S.S. Cassin Young.

Visitors to the park enjoy lectures, colorful costumed interpretations and exhibits. Park rangers conduct walking tours of Freedom Trail and historical talks at Faneuil Hall and Bunker Hill Monument. The Navy presents tours of the U.S.S. Constitution. The Old South Meeting House, Old State House, Paul Revere House, Old North Church and U.S.S. Constitution museum all offer a wide range of programs and visitor services.
