WHAT TO CARRY

There are no stores on the island. Light snacks, beverages, and souvenirs are available for purchase on the ferry. Well prepared visitors bring food, drinks, insect repellent, sunscreen, sunglasses, and rain gear in a comfortable backpack or carrying bag. A supportive pair of walking shoes is essential for a safe visit. Please carry back to the mainland everything you brought to the island including trash.

FISHING

Fish in the sound or the ocean for red bass, sea trout, blue fish, croaker and drum. Only light tackle is allowed on the ferry. A Georgia fishing license and salt water permit is needed to fish the waters of Cumberland Island and needs to be purchased prior to arriving on the island.

HISTORY

Explore the island's past by visiting the ruins of the Dungeness estate completed in 1885 by Thomas and Lucy Carnegie. Few shadows linger from the earlier Dungeness built by Catharine Greene, wife of Revolutionary War hero Nathanael Greene and her second husband Phineas Miller. Visit the Greene-Miller cemetery to see the original resting place of "Lighthorse" Harry Lee.

ENVIRONMENT

Enjoy a day of swimming at the beautiful beach of Cumberland Island, but please remember, there are no lifeguards available.

Cumberland island is 18 miles long with vast undeveloped beaches. Sand dunes, sometimes as high as 40 feet, protect the island's interior. These dunes, held in place by sea oats, are vital to the island's ecosystem. Over 300 species of birds use the island and endangered sea turtles nest here every year. Alligator, deer, turkey and raccoon are commonly seen on the island.

ACTIVITIES

Explore hiking trails, miles of undisturbed beaches and pristine live oak maritime forest; enjoy bird watching; participate in recreational opportunities and solitude; partake in Ranger and self-guided programs. No private vehicles transported to the island. A great way to see the southern end of the island is the 4.5 mile loop! website; <http://www.nps.gov/cuis/planyourvisit/hiking.htm>

CAMPING

Camping is available for up to seven days in a variety of settings: Sea Camp, Stafford Beach, Yankee Paradise, Hickory Hill and Brickhill Bluff. Sea Camp camping has potable water, fire rings, restrooms and showers. Stafford Beach must travel by foot 3.5 miles has restrooms, showers and no potable water. Yankee Paradise, Hickory Hill and Brickhill Bluff have no facilities and no potable water and no campfires allowed. No carts allowed north of Sea Camp.
