

Enduring Mystery

What happened to the Lost Colony of Roanoke? Visit the site of England's first colonial attempts in the New World, a site that would later become a beacon of freedom to enslaved people during the American Civil War. Mysteries unfurl, and the past speaks at Fort Raleigh National Historic Site.

Things to Do

- Visit the reconstructed earthen fort from the 1580s
- Learn about the Freedmen's Colony that was established during the Civil War
- Dive deeper into history on a Ranger Program
- Hike a trail out to Roanoke Sound
- Become a Junior Ranger
- See theatre under the stars at The Lost Colony outdoor drama

Hours and Fees

The Fort Raleigh National Historic Site grounds are open 24 hours a day. The Visitor Center is open 9:00 am to 5:00 pm daily except for Christmas Day.

There are no fees to enter the park.

For information about The Lost Colony outdoor drama, visit www.thelostcolony.org

Contact

To learn more, visit our website: www.nps.gov/fora

Call (252) 473-2111

Or stay connected on social media:

@FortRaleighNHS

@FortRaleighNPS

@FortRaleighNPS

How to Get There

Fort Raleigh National Historic Site is located at the north end of Roanoke Island between mainland North Carolina and the Outer Banks.

The Visitor Center address is:
1500 Fort Raleigh Road
Manteo, North Carolina 27954

Nearby Attractions

Cape Hatteras National Seashore
www.nps.gov/caha

Wright Brothers National Memorial
www.nps.gov/wrbr

