

The National Park Service Presents
DEDICATORY CEREMONY

Going-to-the-Sun Highway
Glacier National Park

At Logan Pass, elevation 6,654 feet, on the Continental
Divide

Saturday, July Fifteenth
Nineteen Thirty-three

E. T. SCOYEN, Superintendent
Glacier National Park

Firefighters' Lunch 12 o'Clock Noon
Raising of the Flag.....2 o'Clock P. M.

PROGRAM

Introductory Remarks..... E. T. Scoyen
Presentation of Distinguished GuestsE. T. Scoyen
Selection.....Blackfeet Tribal Band

Unveiling of Stephen T. Mather Plaque

"Stephen T. Mather"O. S. Warden,
Chairman, Montana Highway Commission

Ten Minutes with the Waterton-Glacier
International Peace Park

Selection.....Blackfeet Tribal Band
"The International Park....Brig.-Gen. J. S. Stewart and
W. A. Buchanan, Alberta Senators

Dedication of the
Going-to-the-Sun Highway

Song..... Chorus, Civilian Conservation Corps
"Construction of the Highway" .. W.H. Lynch, District
Engineer, United States Bureau of Public Roads
"Congressional Interest in Park Highways"

.....Hon. B. K. Wheeler,
United States Senator from Montana

Song..... Chorus, Civilian Conservation Corps
Dedicatory Address..... Hon. F. H. Cooney,
Governor, State of Montana

Indian Peace Ceremony.....
..... Blackfeet, Flathead and Kootenai Tribes
Explanatory: Dr. G. C. Ruhle, Park Naturalist.
Interpretation: Chief Bull, Blackfeet Tribe.

Songs "America," "Montana"

Program Printed Courtesy Great Northern Railway Company

O'Neil Print - Kalispell - U. S. A.