

Steamtown

National Historic Site

UNITED STATES

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

STEAMTOWN NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE

150 S. WASHINGTON AVENUE

SCRANTON, PENNSYLVANIA 18503-2018

OFFICIAL BUSINESS

PENALTY FOR PRIVATE USE $300

The Steamtown Experience

The power of steam locomotion will excite the senses at Steamtown National Historic Site! Feel the heat rising from the firebox; hear the clanging of the bells and the shrill howl of the whistle. Relive the era of steam railroading. At Steamtown, you can truly experience the reality of steam railroading history.

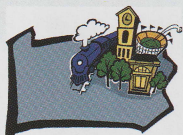

888.693.9391

570.340.5200

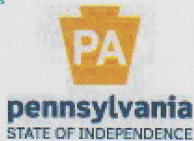

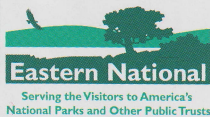

www.nps.gov/stea

10th Anniversary Partners

NORTHEAST
PENNSYLVANIA
CONVENTION AND VISITORS BUREAU
1 800-22-WELCOME

NEWS 22 LACKAWANNA COUNTY'S
NEWS SOURCE
WYOU - SCRANTON

Ten Years and Rolling Into The Future

1995 - 2005

Steamtown
National Historic Site

Steamtown Celebrates Ten Years of Steam, Stories, Partnerships and Pride

In July, 2005, Steamtown National Historic Site marks its 10th Anniversary. Rolling into the future after Ten Years of Steam, Stories, Partnerships and Pride, the park's year-long celebration includes special commemorative events, presentations by guest speakers and lecturers, special interpretive programs, rotating exhibits and demonstrations, entertainment, movie and documentary film screenings, and special weekend activities. For more information about the 10th anniversary celebration, visit www.nps.gov/stea/2005.htm.

Experience Your America™

The National Park Service cares for special places saved by the American people so that all may experience our heritage.

Ten Years and Rolling Into The Future

1995 - 2005

Steamtown
National Historic Site

Steamtown

National Historic Site, Scranton, Pennsylvania

Celebrating Ten Years of Steam, Stories, Partnerships & Pride

Steam

The National Park Service unveils new exhibits during the year to enhance the personal experience with the railroad. They are planned to complement the well-known displays and films in the museum complex.

- Celebrating Celebrations
This exhibit highlights taking the train to events and celebrations.
- Treasures from the Attic.
Bring your railroad collectibles for review by experts in the field.
- Lecture Series. Featured guest speakers throughout the year.
- Movies of Steam. Films and documentaries featuring the locomotives of Steamtown, past and present.
- Railroads of Northeastern Pennsylvania. Exhibits, programs and activities featuring the railroads of the Anthracite Region.

Stories

Discover the many ways in which Steamtown National Historic Site and the National Park Service rely upon public, private and community partnerships with local organizations, businesses and municipalities.

- Rolling into the Future.
A special Independence Day weekend event, featuring rail excursions, guest speakers, interpretive tours, programs and activities.
- It's in the Mail. Special commemorative U.S. Postal Service postage cancellation stamp.
- Friends and Partners.
Sponsored displays, exhibits and programs throughout the year.

Partnerships

The National Park Service takes pride in preserving this important piece of America. Experience America's industrial heritage. Take pride in your national parks.

- Commemorative 10th Anniversary poster.
Available May 1, 2005.
- Visit Your National Parks. A series of special exhibits and activities featuring national parks near and far.

Pride

Witness the giants of the industrial era every day at Steamtown in the Roundhouse, the railroad yard and the Locomotive Shop.

- Displays. Numerous steam locomotives and rolling stock are displayed or in use.
- Tours. Walking tours of the locomotive shop/roundhouse are offered daily.
- Short Train Rides. Short steam train rides in the Scranton yard are offered April - November, 2005. The short train rides may be aboard a caboose or aboard a "commuter" passenger coach.
- The Pullman Experience. This extra-fare short ride in luxurious comfort is offered on many weekends during the operating season.
- Mainline Excursions begin Memorial Day weekend and run through October.

"Steamtown National Historic Site: Preserving the History of Steam Railroading."

2005 Fees

Park Entrance Fee - $6.00

The Park Entrance Fee (all visitors age 17 and over) includes admission to the railroad yard, History Museum, Theater, Technology Museum, Roundhouse and most interpretive programs. An additional fee may be charged for some interpretive programs.

Excursion Fees

Pocono Mainline Excursions

Adult:	$25.00
Senior:	$20.00
Child:	$15.00

Lackawanna Valley Station Stops

(varies upon destination, 8 to 32 miles round-trip)

Adult:	$15.00
Senior:	$13.00
Child:	$10.00

Excursions to other destinations may be available. Visit www.nps.gov/stea/exc.htm for current information. First Class seating may be available on some excursions. All excursion fees and destinations are subject to change without notice. All motive power and equipment is subject to change based on availability. Seating is limited. No refunds unless excursion is cancelled by the park.

Steamtown National Historic Site is open 9:00 to 4:00 (January 2–April 16) and 9:00 to 5:00 (April 17–December 31) during 2005. The park is closed New Year's Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day.

Contact Information

Superintendent
Steamtown National Historic Site
150 South Washington Avenue
Scranton, PA 18503

888.693.9391 570.340.5200

www.nps.gov/stea

Museums and one train coach used for the excursion are handicapped accessible. Facilities are limited; please call ahead for available space and for more information.

Pennsylvania Anthracite Heritage Museum

Examine the history and heritage of the people who settled the Anthracite Region. The museum, which provides an educational experience for the entire family, is located off Keyser Avenue in McDade Park.

570.963.4804

The Lackawanna County Coal Mine Tour

Ride a mine car down 250 feet into what was once a working anthracite coal mine. Experience life as a miner through exhibits and a guided tour in one of Pennsylvania's most unusual attractions. The site is located off Keyser Avenue in McDade Park.

570.963.6463

Everhart Museum

Northeastern Pennsylvania's leading museum of fine arts and natural history, provides a variety of exhibitions and educational programs on American art, Dorflinger Glass, primitive and oriental arts, minerals and ecology. The museum is located at the east end of Mulberry Street in Nay Aug Park.

570.346.7186

Scranton Iron Furnaces

The City of Scranton was built on the iron which flowed from her famous furnaces. From 1842 until 1902, the blast furnaces along Roaring Brook produced the iron and steel for America's Industrial Revolution. The site is located off of Cedar Avenue, just south of Lackawanna Avenue.

570.963.4804

Electric City Trolley Station and Museum

Relive the halcyon days of electric streetcars and trolleys through exhibits, trolley restoration shop, children's room, and trolley rides. Located next to Steamtown National Historic Site in downtown Scranton.

570.963.6590

Directions to Steamtown National Historic Site

From New York/New Jersey, take I-84 W or I-80E to I-380N, then I-81S to exit 185 (Central Scranton Expressway). From Allentown/Philadelphia, take I-476N or I-80W to I-81N (exit 185). From exit 185, follow the signs to Steamtown, turn left at first traffic light. Follow Lackawanna Avenue past seven traffic signals, turn left on Cliff Street (no light) into the park. (Note: Entrance and Mailing Addresses are not the same)