

Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Caboose No. 889

Steamtown
National Historic Site
Scranton, Pennsylvania

Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Caboose No. 889

12

Built: DL&W Keyser Valley Car Shops
Scranton, Pennsylvania, September 1952
Builder's Number: 3187 (originally 2200 Class locomotive tender)

Owners: Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad, Scranton, Pennsylvania
Erie-Lackawanna Railroad, Cleveland, Ohio
Consolidated Rail Corporation, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
Steamtown National Historic Site, Scranton, Pennsylvania

Type: NE Class 4-Axle Steel Caboose

Trucks:	Barber-Bettendorf	Height:	13 feet 8 1/2 inches
Wheelbase:	66 inches	Width:	9 feet 3 3/4 inches
Wheels:	36 inch cast	Length:	31 feet 6 1/4 inches
Brakes:	Westinghouse AB type	Total Weight:	49,500 pounds

Status: In active service at Steamtown National Historic Site, Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Source: Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Caboose No. 889 Historic Structure Report, Steamtown National Historic Site, Scranton, Pennsylvania, Mark L. Morgan and Thomas H.E. Campion, National Park Service, United States Department of the Interior, 1995

0855 of 1000

