

-  Viewpoints
-  Visitor Information Station
-  Trails
-  Campground
-  Restrooms
-  Spelunking
-  Picnic Area
-  Wheelchair Access
-  Water
-  Monument Boundary
-  Restricted Zone

Shuttle bus services offered daily to viewpoints along road 99.
Inquire at ticket sales booth near parking lot.

0 1 2 3 4 Miles

REV. 5/87

Mount St. Helens and Vicinity

CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITY
Road 99 Under Reconstruction
Summer 1987-88 Expect Delays
and Access Limitations

- Watch for this sign on routes leading to Mount St. Helens.
- Visitor Information
- Viewpoints
- National Forest Office

0 5 10 15 Miles

Most National Forest Roads are closed by snow in winter. For current information call your nearest Forest Service office.

Gifford Pinchot National Forest Supervisors's Office
(206) 696-7500

Mount St. Helens National Volcanic Monument Headquarters
(206) 247-5473

Mount St. Helens National Volcanic Monument Visitor Center
(206) 274-4038 (24 Hr. Recording)

Randle Ranger Station
(206) 497-7565

Packwood Ranger Station
(206) 494-5515

Wind River Ranger Station
(509) 427-5645

Mt. Adams Ranger Station
(509) 395-2501

Pacific Northwest National Parks & Forests Association
815 S. KING STREET SUITE 212 SEATTLE, WASHINGTON 98104 (206) 442-7958

This brochure was published by the Pacific Northwest National Parks and Forests Association, a non-profit organization created to benefit visitors to National Parks and National Forests of the Northwest. Memberships, and donations are tax deductible.