Seasons Greetings

NEW SUPERINTENDENTS FOR YELLOWSTONE AND GRAND TETON NATIONAL PARKS

DENVER – New superintendents were named today to two of the nation's most well-known National Parks. Suzanne Lewis, a twenty-two year veteran of the NPS, will manage Yellowstone National Park, and Steve Martin, a twenty-six year NPS veteran will manage Grand Teton National Park and John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Memorial Parkway according to Karen Wade, Intermountain Regional Director. Lewis and Martin will assume their new responsibilities effective early February, 2002.

"It is an honor to be selected for this position, especially in conjunction with the selection of the superintendent for Grand Teton National Park and John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Memorial Parkway," said Lewis. "Seldom does a new superintendent have the opportunity to begin a new and challenging assignment along side that of another new superintendent. I am pleased to have the opportunity to form a partnership with Steve Martin that will assist both of these park units in working with local constituencies to meet the mission of the National Park Service," she said.

Ms. Lewis earned her B.A. (Magna Cum Laude) in American History, in 1978 from the University of West Florida. During her Senior Executive Service Candidate Development Program, Lewis completed assignments with the Department of Interior Secretary's Special Assistant for Alaska, the Office of Management and Budget, and the Walt Disney World Corporation.

Suzanne Lewis

Throughout her NPS career, Lewis has received numerous awards including the National Parks and Conservation Association Park Manager of the Year for Partnerships in 1994. She was also awarded the Woman of Distinction Award, Girl Scout Councils of America in 1997.

Lewis enjoys traveling and completed a tour of southern Africa in 1996, visiting six national parks in Botswana and Zimbabwe, including whitewater rafting the Zambezi River. Other interests include producing pottery, both hand-build and wheel thrown, and writing and editing. She has been married to Michael Hurrell since 1983.

Suzanne Lewis is currently the superintendent at Glacier National Park where she manages over 1,013,000 acres, a staff of approximately 525 during the height of the summer season, and an annual operating budget of over $11 million. She began her NPS career as a seasonal park ranger in 1978 at Gulf Islands National Seashore. During her 11-year tenure at Gulf Islands National Seashore, she served in a variety of positions including park technician, park historian, supervisory park ranger and management assistant to the superintendent. Chosen in 1988 for an international assignment to the Republic of Haiti, she assisted the United Nation's efforts to preserve, protect and educate Haitians in the preservation of cultural resources. In 1989, Lewis was appointed acting superintendent for Christiansted National Historic Site and Buck Island Reef National Monument in the U.S. Virgin Islands. She was selected in 1990 as the first superintendent for the newly created Timucuan Ecological and Historic Preserve – a 46,000 acre national park in Jacksonville, Florida. Lewis served as the superintendent for the Chattahoochee River National Recreation Area in Atlanta, Georgia, from 1997 to April 2000, where she managed one of the busiest national recreation areas in the United States, with more than 3.5 million visitors annually.

Steve Martin

"I am honored to have been selected for the superintendency at Grand Teton National Park. Alaska and the Teton-Yellowstone region are the two areas that our family considers home," said Martin. "Teton's opportunities are remarkable with its wonderful resources, community support and the highly professional park staff. I appreciate Secretary Norton's emphasis on conservation through collaboration, communication and consultation, and look forward to working with NPS Director Fran Mainella, Regional Director Karen Wade, Yellowstone Superintendent Suzanne Lewis, all of the Grand Teton park staff, land managers and communities in the Greater Yellowstone ecosystem in managing and protecting our natural and cultural resources," he said.

Steve Martin is currently superintendent of Denali National Park and Preserve where he is responsible for all aspects of the management of the 6.2 million-acre park. The park has 100 permanent and 200 seasonal employees and an average annual budget of about $15 million.

Prior to assuming the superintendency at Denali, Martin was superintendent of Gates of the Arctic National Park and Preserve, an 8.2 million-acre park encompassing part of the Brooks Range of northern Alaska. He moved to Alaska from Yellowstone National Park where he was chief of concessions. Prior to that assignment, Martin was chief of resource management and visitor protection at Voyageurs National Park in northern Minnesota. Before Voyageurs he was the north district ranger and Old Faithful district ranger at Yellowstone. Martin began his career as park ranger at Grand Canyon National Park in 1975 where he supervised the Colorado River field operation.

Martin earned his B.S. in Natural Resource Management from the University of Arizona in 1975. He has received many awards for his supervisory and management accomplishments, most recently the Department of Interior Meritorious Service Award.

Martin's wife, Dr. Cyd Martin, is also a career employee with the National Park Service. She is the lead anthropologist at Gates of the Arctic National Park and Yukon-Charley Rivers National Preserve, managing cultural resources for both areas. Their daughter Kate, is an optical physicist in Portland, Oregon and their twin sons, Case and Jesse, are students and hockey players at St. Olaf College in Minnesota. The Martins' enjoy cross-country and downhill skiing, hiking, climbing, horseback riding, whitewater rafting and fly fishing. Their other interests include travel, art, music and cooking.

Seasonal Decoration Safety Tips

We are fast approaching the Holiday season and the last thing we want is a fire related incident associated with Christmas trees and/or lighting fixtures. Here are a few safety concerns that should prevent any type of situations and provide for a safe and happy holiday season.

- * Artificial Christmas trees need to be labeled or otherwise identified or certified by the manufacturer as being flame retardant or flame resistive.
- * Christmas trees should not be allowed to obstruct corridors, exit ways, or other means of egress.
- * Only listed electrical lights and wiring can be used on combustible vegetation, Christmas trees, and similar decorations.
- * Electrical lights are prohibited on metal artificial trees.
- * Open flames such as from candles, lanterns, kerosene heaters, and gas-fired heaters should not be located on or near combustible vegetation, Christmas trees, or other similar combustible materials.
- * Natural cut Christmas trees cannot be located near heating vents or other fixed or portable heating devices that could cause it to dry out prematurely or to be ignited.
- * Natural cut trees - the bottom end of the trunk should have a straight fresh cut of at least 1/2 in. (13 mm) above the end prior to placing the tree in a stand to allow the tree to absorb water. The tree should be placed in a suitable stand with adequate water. The water level needs to be maintained above the fresh cut and checked at least once daily. The tree should be removed from the building immediately upon evidence of dryness.

Holiday Greetings from Karen Wade

This holiday season has special meaning for all of us. The tragic events of September 11 have given a renewed sense of importance to the time we spend with family and friends and to the values that the holidays represent. It is my hope that the holidays will find you all in the presence of those you care most deeply about.

The holidays are a time when I reflect on the remarkable job all of you do who work for the National Park Service. I have always been proud to be part of this organization, but this year I feel that pride in especially strong measure. We had people near ground zero who responded to terror with strength and courage. We had people working around the clock following the attacks to provide help and information to those both inside and outside the service. Our law enforcement rangers and park police are making deep personal sacrifices to provide security for places both inside and outside the park system that are considered especially vulnerable and are often far from home and family. In the parks, everyone is working especially hard to meet the additional responsibilities of safety and security imposed by recent events while ensuring the parks are available as a source of comfort and inspiration to visitors. And in offices, people are working hard to provide the support and help parks need to keep their complex operations moving.

At a time when many are reflecting on the underlying values that keep and sustain us, the units of the National Park system are important sources of solace, education and inspiration. They are windows into our national soul, deep pools reflecting our struggles as a nation to live up to our great ideals.

This is the cherished gift that each of you, the women and men of the National Park Service, give to the American people, to the world, and to the future -- a gift of insight, of opportunity, of renewal, of introspection, of understanding. You do this with a confidence, sense of dignity, and passion that should give each of you great pride, and a feeling of hope throughout this holiday season. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve with you and I wish all of you and your families good health and happiness in the New Year.

MAJOR CHANGES THIS OPEN SEASON,
PLEASE READ THIS ANNOUNCEMENT CAREFULLY

Open Season literature is available on the internet at www.tsp.gov; additional information as well as a TSP-1 form will be sent to all employees in the next two days.

Redistribution of past allocations is known as an Interfund Transfer. The TSP-50 can be completed at any time and must be completed if you are a new enrollee. New enrollees will receive a letter from the Thrift Savings Plan Office detailing what they must do in order to allocate their funds amongst the five funds which are now available. If funds are not allocated, they will be placed in the G Fund. Interfund transfers are limited to one per month. # SAFETY CORNER

BY WILLIE BURKHARDT

Do it safe, all the time, every time.

The Safety Advisory Council has decided to make this slogan our guide for the next year. Do it Safe, all the time, every time. This doesn't mean just when it's convenient or doesn't take as much time. This means every time, all the time.

We are asking every employee to make a commitment to be safe in everything they do. It will take more time, thought, and effort. It will not be easy. It will take a conscious effort on the part of every one of us. We do not want to see anyone hurt in the future. Review your actions, plans, and activities. Identify the hazards, and do it safe all the time, every time. Take personal responsibility for your actions and those of others around you. If you see an unsafe act, unsafe conditions, or something that doesn't seem right take the time to correct the situation. If you don't know how to alleviate the hazard, ask for help. If you see a fellow employee doing something that looks unsafe, ask them about it. Stop unsafe work – Do it safe, all the time, every time.

Another aspect of this initiative involves the sharing of near misses and the correction of their cause. Do not be reluctant to share a near miss. The communication of your experience will help others to avoid a possible accident. Look past the view of exposing your mistake and take pride in saving another person from harm. Correct the cause of your near miss. If you almost trip over something on the floor, take the time to clear the pathway. If you notice a problem with a vehicle, have it repaired. Don't just be content with your accident avoidance; prevent the same situation from happening to others. Safety is everyone's responsibility. If you can right the situation, Do It. If you can't, notify the responsible party, and check on it later to see if it's corrected.

Remember-

Do it safe, all the time, every time.

A major cause of accidents for Yellowstone are the low risk, high frequency things we do every day-like walking, driving, lifting, and using tools and equipment. The causes of these accidents are most notably: inattention, improper use of body or equipment, or taking an unsafe position. Many of these accidents can be avoided by taking your time, being aware of your surroundings, recognizing hazards, reviewing proper uses of your body and equipment, and positioning yourself safely. Also, using proper personal protective equipment will help prevent accidents from happening. Simple items like safety glasses, gloves, and proper clothing can protect you from injuries, but only if you have these things available and use them properly when they are needed. Do not put yourself in harms way unprotected.

All accidents are preventable, take the time to recognize hazards and avoid them. If you need help dealing with hazards, consult your coworkers, your supervisor, or the Safety Office. There are a wealth of resources available to help you do your job safely and prevent accidents, but you need to actively participate, be attentive, and work at safety.

Let's all make a commitment to:

Do it safe, all the time, every time.

From the Safety Office during this holiday season-

GIVE THE GIFT OF SAFETY

- ⇒ Provide nonalcoholic drinks at your gatherings for designated drivers and other guests.

- ⇒ Consider giving gifts of safety such as a bicycle helmet, smoke detector, safety whistle, or keyboard wrist support.

Facts on FLU SHOTS

How much do you really know about the flu?
Don't fall for the myths.

"The shot can give you the flu."

Flu vaccines are made from killed influenza viruses. These cannot give you the flu.

"Even if I get a flu shot, I can still get the flu."

This can happen, but the flu shot usually protects most people. Other viruses also circulate during the flu season and can cause illnesses that feel like the flu. The flu shot will not protect you against those other viruses.

"The vaccine isn't 100% effective, so I'm better off getting the flu."

No vaccine is 100% effective. However, if you get a flu shot but still get the flu, you are likely to be far less sick than you would have been without the protection.

"The side effects are worse than the flu."

The worst side effect you're likely to get is a sore arm. The risk of injury or death from a rare allergic reaction is far less than the risk of severe complications from influenza.

"Not everyone can take the flu shot."

People who are allergic to eggs (used in making the vaccine); currently have a severe, acute illness; or have had a severe reaction to the flu vaccine in the past, might not be able to get this protection.

"Only the very old and sick need the flu shot."

Even if you're in good health, if you are 65 years old or older, have a chronic (on-going) or long-term health condition, or are in the 2nd or 3rd trimester of pregnancy, you have a greater risk of complications if you get the flu. Even if you aren't at high risk of complications, you can get a flu shot to prevent the flu and to protect everyone you live with and contact.

"I don't have to get the flu shot by December."

The flu shot can be given before or during the flu season. You should let those who need the protection most have the first shots—those 65 years old or older, with chronic (on-going) or long-term health conditions, and health care workers. It's best not to delay, but if you do, don't give up!

School News

Holiday Program: December 20 is the date to circle on your calendar! The play will begin at 7:00 p.m. This year's play is based on Chris Van Allsburg's Polar Express, and has been adapted for our school by the students. We will have a costume and prop list to you early next week. Thanks in advance for all of the help given by you, the parents!

Ski/Skate Program: A reminder to all families that after winter break we will begin the PTO sponsored cross-country skiing and ice-skating programs. Be sure to have your child's equipment for both sports by then. If you have any questions concerning equipment, please call Ms. Loren. A permission and information slip will be coming home soon for these activities.

Classroom Notes

Ms. Marty's Class: *The kindergartners will be looking forward to the holidays. We will be writing a letter to Santa. We will be working on Christmas projects and fitting in our "work," too! During the month of December we will work on the letters Dd, Mm, and Ss. *In first grade we will be finishing up our second reading anthology book and starting our third book. In math we will continue adding and subtracting numbers to 10. The first graders will be working on math story problems. We will be doing some holiday activities, too!

Mrs. Bueter: *Kindergartners, first and second graders have completed their health classes for this year. We had fun learning about and then tasting the different food groups, studying oral health and how to be germ-safe. *Fifth and sixth graders will begin health classes in January. Now that snowy weather is here, be sure to wear proper clothing, including hats, gloves, and boots. Be careful on icy areas and don't forget to use a tissue!

Mr. Stringfield's Class: *Second and third graders are beginning their December Kids' Newspaper. Also, for the month of December, they will set and try to meet personal reading goals. *First and second graders are beginning a five senses unit in science. We will learn how scientist rely on their senses and are also fooled by them. We will begin

Good-bye to Rachel de Vries. Tuesday, Dec. 4, is her last day with us. It has been fun getting to know her and learning from her. So long, Rachel, and we wish you all the best in your teaching career.

The PTO Cookie Exchange will be held on December 5 from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. There will be crafts for children as well as a chance to exchange your favorite holiday recipes.

Thanks to the ice-skating committee for starting up our ice rink. Many hours of hard work will bring it to skating condition for our January sports.

learning beginning world geography and learn about some international customs and celebrations.

Mrs. Kisthart: Third and fourth graders are doing magic tricks in science! All the experiments are hands on and add a whole new way for the kids to discover and understand the world around them. We're using the "Adventures in Science" series that covers a wide subject range from dinosaurs and space to saving our earth. *Fourth grade parents please have your child practice and study their time tables as we are beginning to do division in math. Third graders are doing a great job of subtracting 3 digit numbers and subtracting across zeros. *Fourth graders are finishing up their study of the New England Region and will begin a diorama project to culminate that study. Third graders continue to study communities and are finishing up their suburb project. Parents, you may want to stop in to see them in case you don't want you child bringing them home. (They are rather large and cumbersome.)

Mrs. Young's Music: The band is practicing madly for our holiday concert, the kids are all learning their songs and dances, the recorders are tooting away on some special music... We're putting it all together for December 20!
